

Granger B. Whitelaw
President & CEO
Rocket Racing League

Granger Whitelaw serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Rocket Racing League, overseeing the league's management, operations, partnerships and corporate affairs.

Mr. Whitelaw is the Founding Partner and Managing Director of BlueCar Partners, LLC, a global venture-consulting firm that provides capital, strategic consulting and business development services to promote the growth and success of innovative companies. Over the past 15 years, Mr. Whitelaw has led the firm in the launch and expansion of more than 20 companies, including the AMBER Development Group which supports the next-generation of the Amber Alert system, International Fuel Technology, a fuel science and research company, GPS Industries, creator of GPS-related sporting equipment, Kalorama Studios, a major motion picture and event site in Washington, D.C., TrendSphere, a think tank and consultancy for Fortune 500 Chief Technology Officers, and Vemics, creator of breakthrough collaboration technologies. Previously, Mr. Whitelaw served as Vice President of Mergers & Acquisitions at Grady & Hatch.

Mr. Whitelaw studied International Trade & Marketing at the University of Minnesota.

#

#

#